From the Heart of Toni

I just returned from Hong Kong where I visited with the Lightworkers Center. It was a whirlwind week of giving readings, An Evening with the Masters, Ceremony for Teachers, two workshops plus a Peace Event. It was awesome! Here is Nora who is working with light to clear Sophie who is the translator. The experience I had leaves me speechless because so many wonderful moments happen. This is just one of them amidst the workshop with over 16 students who flew from Malaysia to join the students from the center.

Lightworkers Center is the ongoing vision of Lori Lam who began the center over 10 years ago. She passed last July 3rd and her vision is carried out by Santa, Nora, Sophie and Becky and others who are avid students of A Course in Light.

If you look closely you will notice beautiful artwork which is created by many students who also learn from another visiting teacher of light named Paul. They all comment on how they go through such a process in Recently we received from Kitty Kopey a transcript from a meeting held in Allentown, Pa in 1995. She held onto this reading every since that night when the message was given for a group of people who were students in the lightwork along with friends who were just curious and sitting in on this event.

After reading this transcript I was so shocked at how accurate it was in describing what is “going on” right now in our world. I was pondering whether I should share it and then was given this comment from Cathleen our teacher. Dear Toni: I think adding this to the ACIL Newsletter would be so appropriate. It looked like it already went out to most of your email contacts, but it is worth reading again. You can mention how the message talks accurately about the turbulence in our world today, but how these events are necessary to shake out the old negative patterns and beliefs within all structures and societies. And through it all by staying connected to the light and love in the Christ Consciousness we will find the peace and balance within to sustain us during these challenges. This gives us great hope and faith to visualize heaven on Earth.

Message from Melchizedek

I am in this moment focused on the sites that I am seeing in the days that lie ahead. The Earth will shake and rumble so to speak, as the waters are felt deep within the shores of Japan. Uncertainties shift in vibration, nearing Japan, Alaska and the Coast along the shores of Oregon & California. Also continually will be seen changed patterns; the weather presents strange storms coming harsher than before. Records being broken, causing havoc, there will also be changes in economic scenes and this process of change is in motion.

As we speak, resolution is not simple and cannot come quickly, not by force of will or by manipulation, so to speak. Numbers, the economic system will shift and man will finally be released of the burden of karma of debt and taxes and conditions that keep man enslaved and unfocused. For man was not made to be a slave to a governing few. But the human hearts and the human spirit was made to live as gods creating freely and living with peace and harmony, openness and joyfulness of spirit.

The monetary aspect is a great burden on all minds, it has become the beast, that which is perceived to be the enemy of the heart, of the soul and of the spirit of liberty. Transformed there will be a new wave, not soon in its completion, but steps leading to tremendous changes, more than you can even expect.

The ground work has been made through different political movements. Again man cannot solve this situation that must come through transformation. The way for you to work is to be focused on the Law of One, the Law of Love and liberty. You must focus on what brings freedom to individual selves responding to the call of the “Lord of the light” as the inner self’s own pattern for its life’s journey.

Religion will also be faced with many changing perspectives as records come to the forefront and reveal depths of wisdom known to ancient ones. Records that are held deep in the ground buried for ages so to speak, revealing more first links with other systems and other beings coming with understanding of the systems of the Earth and to its harmony with many planets that evolve and surround the universe. Much is already known yet not revealed by those who would be angered with the truth.

Just now you are given information because your heart is open and you are ready to see beyond the limitation.

The following year, 1996 will bring about many struggles, individually and collectively as a whole. It begins a stage of almost losing a sense of hope. But you as lightworkers must constantly know that this is but a shift, a phase that must be endured, yet victory comes. You will not be in a place you dwell with any devastating effects, but many places of the Earth will find the Earth shifting. (This reading was given to a group in Allentown, Pa.)

The sands of time are shutting doors to the ancient times of an antichrist history. You are also viewing changes in places on planet earth; sacred wars, ancient troubles coming to a place of resolution and changing perspective that has been a great war on the inner planes. Many different species have been in conflict over the rules of what is perceived 'the souls trapped in Earth and hidden from the ancient wisdom and truth of their place in history.'

But information has been given through different sources that reveal that you have been in guardianship with others who have watched and observed your struggles. They who came from the Sons of Light and are associated with places you are familiar with, the Pledians so to speak, are all conscious beings that have lived with the Laws given by the days of the ancient ones.

You are concerned over what may be perceived as a shift, as in a darkness coming to the Earth. It has been prophesied many ages ago that time will stand still and it will appear to be that the sun is dark and the light goes out for a first time and coldness comes in. But it is but a beginning of something new, different and remarkable and joyful too. Stay centered; use your light, use the tools of the body of the soul and recognize it is a small moment in the eternity of the journey of the soul.

Whatever change may be, it will not take your life away. It will simply bring you to a point of being centered in the Christ Consciousness and bring you forward to the next stages.

The message we wish for the Earth to know is that all wars, struggles, hunger, sickness, diseases, these are necessary patterns that have evolved from the lack of being unaware of spiritual freedom. It will be a time for the spiritual truth to be fully demonstrated 'that the body is the vehicle of which the soul is the instrument, a fine tuned instrument.' Fine tune your soul body of light, the physical will sense wellness even when the body trembles with weakness and feels out of sorts with its self.

Meditate, tune to the body, use the tools, the helpers will elevate your resistance. Yet it is important that the body be massaged, anointed, cared for with the aromas, the magnetic, fluids which are a part of you be honed and toned with sounds, light and color. These are the tools; they will surpass need for medical attending.

So the medical factions have served your lives, it is become detrimental in many ways, so heal, be physicians, be in charge of your physical self, love your body, love your essence, care for yourself, nurture your own being and stay centered with your light.

No, we cannot predict the exact time frame of the darkness. We can only sense that shifts have occurred but mostly the shifts are inside. More people will be asking what they need to know, for they are finding things are changing, are different and they need instruction and guidance bringing the work of light to the forefront, let it come to a greater perspective.

And now, all the questions you hold are significantly the greater view. We believe they are answered from your heart and soul. What you did not hear, you will know. Each of you will go to a place within yourself and for the next 48 hour period, you will be connected to the Council of Light guiding you. If you have a personal question that you need to be directed in, write it on a piece of paper, hold it in your hands, sleep with it... ... the answer will come!!!

To you nothing will be held that you need to know, but do not worry about financial pictures, you will live through struggles. It is not a matter of how much you have; it is a matter of what you give of yourself for the opportunity you live. Money will seem in a total different light, like the exchange of love, an exchange of expression rather than burden moments. We see at this moment we are connected with the love and belief in you based upon thoughts of security and needs and prosperity.

In this moment we ask for transformation to raise all of your thinking to respond to the abundance that God brings. We ask that whatever has been kept in a state of lack, limitation and denial, be released. Whatever karma is in motion let it no longer rule the ego system. Whatever has been foresighted, limited by the past, be released. Focus on responding to and treasure that release and free you for your service in great prosperity.

I Melchizedek anoint the mind, hearts and soul and you are called to wear and be fully revealed as priest in the priesthood of this ancient Order that you have been called for.

And now, Shalom, Shalom, be one, be love enforced with the lights. Walk the way, stay clean in peace. Are there questions?

Questions: (Not sure what the questions was but this is the answer) There needs to be a shift. Great battles are going on. This one Gregg Braden been a strong male, Gold light surrounds him.

Zero Point: In a matter so to speak, depending upon the transformation that transpires through the next 3 years, we perceive zero point coming around more past the time frame of the century, moving in and to 2005 and 2006. Some have predicted a time will be when an intervention and guidance comes sooner than forecasted. Nothing has been set in destiny or on a stone regarding this activity. But the movement towards the belt of light is already in motion, its taking its toll upon the Earth or in shifts of weather in system. (Photon Belt)

Dallas will be a comfort zone. It will be a new city, collectively bringing in many from California, Oregon and Washington and all from the coast along the shores of Mexico and Texas. People shift in evolution when they meet those of Cosmic Christ, their vibration will be of such that they can emanate the essence that was demonstrated from Jesus and others, reminding to others of His status. But today others such as Sai Baba and Babaji or others speak of living masters demonstrating the power and pass it on to many under their wings, so to speak.

Jesus: it's not known its total entirety, all of you will be demonstrating phenomenon coming from the Cosmic Essence and the Christ. This is the meaning of standing as full enlightened beings governed by the Law of One, living without sin and without blemish in the heart. When you live without blemish or blame of shame and guilt and rage, then the soul itself seems to live in total wholeness and then raises as one whose emits The Christ.

Flashes come through the darkness; the molecular structure of Atoms in the physical system as you know it to be is raised into heightened states of vibrational being. Some will seem to be invisible in their consciousness and be able to move about without limitations manifesting strange and unusual elements, rather they may see themselves as less of that phenomena of light, but nevertheless have met with their inner Christ

As gods these are their images per say, their thoughts and philosophies and ideas that lead man to reorganize their beliefs as the many faces of what Christ is.

A god is but a fully revealed spirit in motion in the heart. So you are one, all Gods, just claim it and know it to be not heresy but momentary what God meant you to be, co-creation of a creation that in a pattern of perfection. See it and it is.

Even Nostradamus in all of the devastation he saw, he saw a glimpse of hope, a new path that leads to a life in harmony. So again the 2 pathways do co-existence, they are parallel demonstration of light. Choose the light to walk through the veil of darkness and you will see things in a different manner, a parallel world exactly as you meant it.

Meditate, Vocalize ... the changes, it will be

The Urantia Book is well known as discourses that were channeled. Many students of ACIL read this book. Part !V of this book is entitled The life and Teachings of Jesus. “The basis of this narrative was supplied by a secondary midwayer who was onetime assigned to the superhuman watchcare of the Apostle Andrew.”

Of course this is Andrew who is the transmitter of so many readings. All are under the Order of Melchizedek. There is a lot in the book referring to the Melchizedeks.

Enjoy your life and be open to all the Good that comes to you.
