A Peace Event

FROM THE HEART OF TONI

The excitement is building as the preparations and expectations for the Peace Event mounts up. Students of the lightwork are coming to Dallas from Wi. Co. Az. Nv. Tn Wa. They are coming with their energy and spirit to raise the consciousness of our City, Country and global healing.

It seems so timely that this is taking place on Feb 2, 2011. Think of this, it is Feb (2) 11 .. Eleven is the master # of the Order of Melchizedek. Each # 11, 12, 13 are important spiritual numbers and this is being held on each of them. Very interesting! Then the 14th is VALENTINES DAY.

The biggest joy is meeting people I haven't seen in a long time and catching up with someone like Debra West. She was a young operatic singer under the study of Linda Gerring Grossman when I visited NYC and Long Island a long time ago. I found out she moved here to Dallas and ran into her at a church and then she attended one of our meetings. Her comments are posted on facebook.

"Toni, It's about time DFW had a chance to experience more of you and the benevolent guidance you transmit. I am forever grateful to you for your service and showing up for me in NY in my first "reading" and channeling experience...was it really 25 years ago?"

Your work and the messages of the magnificent beings you channel has brought great good and much wonder to my life. I am so looking forward to this event and the expansion of the loving energy your work brings to the world. I'm looking forward to singing on Saturday morning and participating in this momentous event. Let the sweet light shine on!!!" I wish all of you could be here.

Even though the cold has hit us like we were residents of Canada or Alaska and we are in the midst of an ice storm, the Super bowl is taking place this Sunday. That has added challenges for those attending this Football Contest, nevertheless It should be quite a game.

The lessons of life continue and A Course of Light helps to keep you on the path with awareness and a consciousness of making choices amidst the most difficult of times. Some of those who begin the work of the light come in the trying times. Amy is one of those who came with a heavy heart, a confused mind after the loss of her husband. She writes this incredible story. Amy has attended the classes and is in Planetary 7 of the Course. She admits it has been a life changing experience.

“Suicide, the Victimless Crime”

My husband was missing and I am both angry he is not returning my calls and frantic to get in touch with him to hear his voice to know he is okay. Four days earlier he kissed me good bye and left on a trip out-of-town for work, or so he told me. In the midst of my own busy schedule I realize he hasn't called. Anxiety builds as I leave phone message after message and still no response. He gave me flight information before he left and it is now time for him to return. I pray he was just absorbed in work and will call on the way home from the airport. The clock ticks minutes past when his flight is to land and my doorbell rings. My heart races as I peek out the blinds to see who it is, Police uniforms. I answer the door, sick to my stomach.

“Are you the wife of David?”

“YES, what is going on?”

“Please will you sit down Ma'am, we need you to sit down”

“NO! NO! Just tell me! What is going on? Has he been in an accident??”

“We are sorry to inform you that your husband was found dead in a hotel room today...”

In an instant I am labeled a 35 year-old widow of a 35 year-old male who killed himself. Seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months that followed was pure Hell. Dreams crushed, enter identity crisis. Is this for real? How could he do this to me? How could he do this to himself? How did my life turn into this mess? What did I do to deserve this? What do I do now? Will I lose my home? How will I survive financially? Who will love me now? Why me??

It was the worst story that ever happened to me, it was the best story that ever happened to me.

Up until that point in time, I was living a lie. Life is not what I was told it was. I am not who I thought I was. My husband is not who I thought he was. I was a part of events I never wanted to experience. Or was I?

Flash forward 5 years later on a journey out of the darkness and into the light. It would take a lot of time for me to explain how I got from there to here. Please allow me to cut out “the story” and share what is my truth as a result.

There are many reasons why a person chooses to end their life. I have heard the dramatic details, personally suffered the mental anguish and witnessed the tears and broken hearts of numerous family, friends, and acquaintances left behind in the aftermath. Stories told and retold, suicide notes dissected, questions repeatedly asked over and over, what-if speculations abound, if only the deceased could explain, no answers available, or so it seems.

Ultimately the cause of suicide is all the same. It is not the mental torture, the dependence on drugs or alcohol, the bullying, the accident, the depression, or the circumstances gone wrong. There is one and only one root cause of suicide; it is the delusional suffering from the separation of the truth of who I Am.

Listen closely. There are many in this world suffering from the same, they just do not make the choice to end their life. Instead, they suffer internally, needlessly.

Knowledge is power and awakening to the truth of who “I Am” and who “You Are” is empowering. I will never convince another that I am correct and all other debates on the subject are wrong. That is not my intent.

But consider this. Say that my husband David, or anyone else who chose to end their life knew the following. Would he or she still make the same choice?

- There is no death for I am eternal.
- I am perfect and whole, just as I am.
- Another person, material object, status label, or event does not define me.
- I do not need to seek outside of myself. Love, Peace, and Joy is my birthright already contained within.
- I am never alone, I am All One with the Source of All that Is.
- I am not a victim; I am a victor who creates my own reality.
- God/Source does not punish me, for I am God/Source too.
- Jesus does not save me, I save myself from separation.
- There is no right or wrong, judgment only exists within those judging themselves and others.
- There is nothing to screw up. Life is a game where everyone is a winner.
- I am free when I live in the present moment, a prisoner when I live in the past or the future that does not exist.
- Heaven or hell is not a destination. It is a mental state I choose here and now.

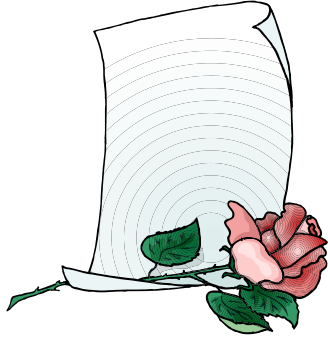

There is no shame in the act of ending one's life; it is an option available as a gift of free will. The birth and death cycle is repetitive, entering and exiting, reincarnating to experience the thrill of learning and the evolvement of all souls for the advancement of the Earth and the Universe.

No drama need be involved when one knows the truth. Birth, death, or dis-ease is not some random event that strikes out of nowhere like a stroke of good luck or a curse of bad luck. We individually decide the moment we enter and exit our lives. It is my choice how I want to live in the middle of it all.

With this knowledge a celebration is in order. It's all how I choose to experience the story.

Happy Valentine's Day

Toni: Just remember everything you require is already with you and in you. All the love you need is already the love you already are. Everyone a part of your life is a reflection of something you are learning or achieving or something you are releasing. Everyone in our life is a mirror of something we are healing, transforming or sharing. Affirm:. I am in total acceptance and being guided through all these experiences. I truly love my life. I truly love who I am. I am totally accepting the light in me is what is helping others see the light in them. I accept that all relationships in my life are a mirror of what I seek to understand, learn, heal grow and teach. I am not judging any of these conditions as wrong or conflicting or in detriment or in obstacles. I am seeing the experience as a total lesson of love. I am letting go of being afraid or in disorder or in impatience.

Message from the Marcus; An excerpt from the lessons of ACIL.

As you are aware, we as the messengers assist through the thought processes given for you. Each of you have received insights for yourself and to the ongoing opportunities that lie ahead. You may not know them in a plan that you recognize but you will recognize then as a Divine Plan that unfolds for you. Your plan is connected to something beyond the ego's idea. Your plan is a soul journey that takes you into and through experience of becoming free from all the illusions that Earth created as the separation of the soul from its Source.

So in this struggle to integrate you find yourself split in many ways, almost as though you are unable to piece all of yourself together as one. So we tell you at this phase and lessons of the light you will come together, you will be in harmony, in balance and in peace. You will feel yourself not distracted, distorted, confused or uncertain but more centered in a total knowing that you are part of what is meant to be a true movement of healing for humanity. You will no longer just think of yourself in a singular way, but as yourself as a connection to many others with the same mind, with the same thought and the same intentions for a greater good for humanity.

We come as the messengers through the Order of Melchizedek; we come as a council with many members within its core council of light. We come as spokesman and as transmitters and angels as messengers of light. In every way we direct thought to the very soul of you and from it there becomes a true release of many conditions that seem uncertain, and without a divine intent. So healing is in motion, it is deep inside and within the very core part of you and it is in motion to unlock all the mysteries you need to know that will set you free from negativity.

One of the questions that have been presented to us through is HOW TO UNDERSTAND WHAT IS THE LAW OF ATTRACTION. It is simply a recognition that energy follows thought and thought direct energy and energy manifest from its source and thought magnified the vibration of energy.

Think of perfection as a perception. If you percept it is perfect, it is. If you perceive it imperfect it is. If you perceive as a balance, and harmony and peace, it is. If you perceive it in conflict, disorientation and disconnection it is. So the vision becomes impactful when you see it and perceive as a unity of Minds, in a thought provoking intentional experience of bringing a new wave of light and love into the experience of human thinking.

Yes, this is a lesson beyond what is perceived as human concepts of reality, but you are imagines and the imagination that oversees the higher consciousness coming through and being a part of what brings peace to earth and its ultimate experience.

Now perceive the frequencies of these vibratory energies, is LOVE. The love that knows there is One Source, One Spirit, One Mind, One essence co-creating in the reality of human thinking.

There is much in motion that is seeking to exist in all the structural changes and vibratory energies that are affecting the earth, and all it's changes.

Do not fear you future, but be prepared to live in mental state of Unity, Oneness and Light. And perceive yourself in total receptivity to the guided consciousness of yourself.

And now, we ask that there be a total direction of this radiance of this Divine Love Energy, and the direction is to be a part of all that brings harmony and oversees the conditions that destroy the very core of what Peace and Love is meant to be.

Now, we magnify the vibration and the mantra of recognition and it is set into motion and shifts and changes will be felt and experienced in you. And yes, you can live humanly in every way, fully aware of who you are and what you are meant to express.

Love yourself, love your home, your family and all that is a part of you, and truly know you are part of something more. It is just another facet of re-creating consciousness to assist in a unified activity.

A PEACE EVENT:

Come and attend this important event to unite with all lightworkers, Christians, spiritual believers, healers, teachers, ministers, and parents with children. Come and participate in holding the vision of Peace within ourselves and for our world.
