From the Heart of Toni

In the cool lush lakes and mountains of Evergreen Co, I will be spending the month of June. The above picture is the scene we will look at from the deck of our cabin. Every morning I can sit and gaze at the beauty and serenity of this place. There is nothing quite like breathing in the air of the pine trees and rushing water. Across the street by this bubbling brook is a friendly family who became our friends. They have three daughter and three dogs. Mazie the dog loves going fishing in this creek. I don't think he has ever caught a fish, but he is out there every day in the water trying hard to get one.

This picture is of a home called The Swiss Chalet and is a short distance from where we will be. We became acquainted with them too. Nicest people who said ed when we return they want me to play their grand piano. This home was built in the "30's) and it is amazing. I have been practicing my music and trying to rev up the nerve to play for them. It should be an awesome time!

Up on top of Mt. Evans the scenery is so spectacular. We encounter Mountain Goats last year and that was so interesting. Even though it is difficult to breathe up in the high altitude, it is worth the drive through the longest road to a mountain top in Colorado. Of course the highlight of the trip is spending time with my daughter Annette and the excursions they plan.

.I wish all of you a very good time of peace and joy.

For the past two Wednesday evenings we held tele- conferencing calls and had quite few people on line. They were very excited and touched by the energy and light. The conference is relating to the guided interpretation of REVELATIONS.

The following story is an amazing co-incidence that took place. Kathy Martin called me last week with this amazing experience. The person who was her business partner years ago had walked out on her and their Apt Finding business. The woman had left Kathy without notice and ran off with the money in the account. Prior to the phone call this woman has been going to church and turning her life around. So she called Kathy with an apology for what she did so many years ago. Kathy laughed at her and said. "Please do not feel guilty you were the reason that my life changed and I was able to do what I always wanted to. I am very grateful for what you did and please do not feel bad about this."

I remember that I was there in Houston with Kathy right after this happened. I was giving readings and group of friends of Kathy's were all going to an Expo in Colorado and I suggested that she go with them. So she did. At the expo she met a woman who was doing Aura pictures and Kathy became very interested in what she was doing, she always wanted to travel and help people and through the lightwork she did become very sensitive. To make a long story short, Kathy desired to have an Aura Camera so through her parents help she purchased a camera for over $10,000 and for many years she would give readings at fairs and conventions. She also became a motivational speaker because of her incredible positive attitude.

Since her first phone call in February from her former partner, she has been receiving many calls from her because she is struggling with her belief system, a little confused with Christianity and what she feels inside. She was saying how her father was an Edgar Cayce fan who had read all his books. Kathy said. "Oh I have all of Cayce's books and I work with Tom Johnson who owns the Heritage Bookstore that has his books and also manufactures the Cayce remedies for health."

So her friend said she had really been praying that she could feel guidance from her father and mother. They each passed on to the other side. Kathy got so excited that her father had studied the Cayce material. After she hung up the phone she went to her collection of Cayce books ... Oh the friend had said that her father's favorite Cayce book was "There Is a River." So as she picked through her 22 books of Cayce she pulled out There is a River. She opened the book and on the inside of the cover was a hand written note "To My Husband, with a heart and signed with a woman's name." Then on the other side of the page was a sticker with a man's name and address. When Kathy looked at the name, it was the name of the Girls father with his address.

She called the girl back and said "I just found my book There is a River and it looks like it has your father's name in it." So she read the woman's signature and the sticker with a name and address. the girl was so shocked. She said "that is my father's name and my mother's name." ISN'T THAT SO AMAZING. Then Kathy called me and I had been thinking the whole day that I needed to have a tel conferencing call on Revelations. The Revelation interpretation is from Edgar Cayce. So I knew it is important for us to have these lessons.

For the past two Wednesday evenings we held tele-conferencing calls and had quite few people on line. They were very excited and touched by the energy and light. The conference is relating to the guided interpretation of REVELATIONS.

Message from Azreal from Tel Conference on Revelations!

Greetings this is Azreal. We have been observing the excitement as all beings of light are overseeing what is in effect and is the acceptance of your egos who are extraordinarily receiving and responding to these truths presented as the teaching of the consciousness of Revelations.

The word Revelation is what is revealed. Revelation means to be revealed for an experience of a new insight to an old idea. Revelations is a state of experiencing an insight, a knowing, a spiritual perception of truth, or it is revealing what is in need of change. What is in need of change is an output of unknown conditions or undeveloped ideas or conditions in opposition to what is known as the Spiritual Principles of Truth. Revelations is individual as well as collective. Revelations is the revealing of your peace from the very core of your essence of your soul through all that you are in this human experience of Light.

As light beings you are constantly experiencing a new revelation of your personal understanding. You constantly move through the barriers that were obstacles in your thinking, in your past conditions of your life. You sense from all challenging conditions that there is something that is a part of your desire to know the why, to know the wherefore, to know the cause, to experience the desire of the Creator of the teachings of the Source, as the Higher Mind of All That Is. It is the teachings of your intelligences within the soul of your being.

The intelligence in its purest state has a vibration of knowing what is in effect, what has become the cause and what is the healing of the need to bring change into effect.

are a true wayshower for the consciousness of what is yet to come. The healing is a constant integration of insight, of joy, of love, of recognition that you are blessed in your development to your own personal evolved state.

So through the lessons that will be presented, there will be associations with the symbols for deeper understanding in a conscious way. The deepest part of the lesson is the healing that flows in and out through the totality of your being, helping you to raise your perception of your ability, your intention, your desire and your service.

So, as spoken the vibration of the light, most intense in this time, is the lessons of the Scarlet Ray and Scarlet energy in its highest essence is that which brings transformation and upliftment into every aspect of your physical self. It begins in the root chakra and begins as the amazing process of bringing light through your body. It is you rising like a Phoenix out of the darkness into the joy of Higher Intention.

So the goal in this particular lesson of light is the goal of reviving in your physical self what you most need, that you are of passion and desire, and ability and opportunity, to move through the obstacles and to see the higher intention of your light, your love and your spirit.

So as I speak, everything in you is like a flame of energy. The vibration of the light, the frequency of the energy rises like a flame that is heating up yourself. It is burning off the fear of not being enough. It is burning off the illusion that you have not been enough. The illusion is a perception that you are measuring yourself against another.

Beloved ones, you are our students, you are the new ascended beings that are to oversee how the work is transmitted to the many who are yet just beginning their steps. We honor you, whether you cannot or have not yet honored yourself. You are honored by this simple act of openness, of receptivity and integrating your Highest Divine Will. Your bodies are in effect of change. Your bodies may seem very off balance, may seem almost incapable of being strong, it is just processing old issues, not only yours, but from other that are a part of you.

We tell you in meditation, ask that you be released from any effect that may have come from another's thought, another's intention and another's image of their perception of you. Ask that you be free from all negativity and sense that the Power of Divine Love, that the consciousness as The Christ is in you, is assisting you in freeing you and guiding the steps you are meant to follow.

We are asking from the Order of Melchizedek that the families that are part of these who have come to open the way, are also in the experience of transformation of the Earth, new understanding and growth.

So with this, whether you are struggling with your eyes, with your back, with your heart, with your muscles, with tendons, with other aspects of your physical self, in this moment perceive your body is being released of negativity, of unregenerate cellular consciousness. You are integrating energy of the Scarlet Ray. It is the effective frequency of raising the vibrations of your rooted consciousness, the very essence of your strength, of your will, of your intention, of your soul.

Be at peace.

The Akashic records are vibrations of your soul. They are the imprints of what you have accomplished through your lives before. There is a part of you which you chose to walk through this life to explore the healing from pain encountered in your past. You are each extremely connected to a high order of spiritual developed Lighted Ones. Your choice to incarnate was volunteered by your spirit. Your experience in this particular life is in accordance to what is right in your lesson and growth for your own purpose. You are not a mistake and you did not fall into a path destroying yourself, but many of the lessons of human life have been difficult for you and for others who are a part of you.

In this moment beloved students you are in an intense experience for healing your own psychic sense, your own karmic conditions of your past. You are here to restore your sense of personal balance, personal acceptance and personal joy at who you are and what you do. You walked with me before, in other times and you are reviewing and I tell you not to be discouraged. Though we are not together in the Orient, in a secluded and separate place from humanity, you are protected with consciousness to assist you in finding the courage and strength that is you.

So yes I am Jove, I am here and you are exploring a new process for you. In your personal time there may come to you, your individual guide and the master Christ or the one familiar to you from another life. This is not to be seen as unusual but the natural connection to that state of Light that is your truest place of peace. All of you are being touched as I speak in the levels of your own soul and body and mind. And so yes, you can be free from your anxiety. You can truly be free from judging yourself and closing off your own experiences with others.

You will be strong enough to walk through this process. There will be a shift in you; you will notice it. Think of that center of your solar plexus totally infused with Radiance of Orange Light and from this part of you, all the energy that has come from others harming you is released. You are detaching, you are disconnecting you are releasing energies that would harm your ego causing you to be in difficulty. You are letting go of your fathers, your brothers, your sisters, all the energies impacted in you from times before. You are letting go of hurt and emptiness, abandonment and pain. You are letting go of being without resources and you are abundantly being freed.

As I speak the body may find resistance or pain may shoot through your spine or through your shoulder or in the back of the head where there remains certain old conditions, but trust. Light is magnified, healing is in effect and you are clearing consciousness. And let go of thinking you must rescue others, their time will come and you will know what is right to say and what's right to become.

All is in its rightful state, whom you see and what you see is perceptions of the dimensions of Light and it is good. Now experience this Orange energy filling up your body as though the rays of your Lighted self is coming into you and balancing the nature of you. It is flowing through your nervous system, flowing through all brain wave activity of your past thinking and moving into and through the organic system of you. Each of you are receiving and embracing the Light. And there is an agreement and contract you each have connected with, it is in effect, it will be surprising, it will be joyful, it will have its playfulness in your life.

And just feel that you are filling up with energy that help you accept you in total trust. You are trusting yourself, you are trusting your guidance, you are trusting your feelings and you are trusting who you are. When you are ready, the consciousness of who you are moves back to the physical body and the physical aspect is grounding, connecting you to all you need to do, materially, physically, consciously and so it is. Go in peace.

Wooster was very ill with his immune system failing.
He passed today at the vet's.
Wooster was a Gentlemanly cat
who loved to nap,
or have a lap,
and after a bite to eat
he'd ask politely, "Out Please."
Bye Wooster for one last Leave.

What is the connection between ourselves and our pets? As with any human relationship we become attached to them, literally, by the 'Heartstrings.' We tend to think off this image as a metaphor for Love, but these strings actually exist; cords that bind our hearts to others' hearts including our pets. Along these strings energy flows, our pets can sense our moods and if we're paying attention we can sense theirs. Healing occurs. Think of two electro-magnetic energy fields connected by filaments interacting with each other with love and compassion; radiating soothing energy and comfort. Consider the relationship as a harp, whereas, when one plays a harp the vibrations of sound strike concordance with the heart & helps to heal. These little souls come to us for many purposes. They have their own expression and mission to achieve. We can recognize different personalities expressed by our pets and some are more cat-like or dog-like. Some seem more human and this just isn't us projecting onto our pets. Their souls are evolving as well and interaction with humans help make that possible. Science would have us believe that emotions are a result of chemical processes. But these processes are directed by and a result of Spirit and Mind acting through as. So our relationships with our pets can be a relationship in Spirit intended for our mutual benefit. Daniel Stephens.
